

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I finally can come home in the evenings and relax, I no longer spend my dinner preparation time or eating time, listening to the phone ring off the hook so companies and badger me about something I'm not the least bit interested in. If I need a service or product I would call them.

Please leave the Privacy Act just the way it is.